

"Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Thank you for considering a sponsorship to support Legal Aid of NC's MLK interns and the training/professional development provided during the program.

Legal Aid of NC's MLK internships provide a paid 10-week opportunity for 30-40 talented law students to spend their summer experiencing the real world of legal aid advocacy.

MLK interns work under the supervision of seasoned Legal Aid attorneys in one of our 23 offices or special projects serving all 100 counties across the state. Internships bring legal theory to life with substantive work on real cases for real clients. Interns also benefit from accompanying MLK trainings and events that support their professional and personal development.

Julian Manrique

Norman Adrian Wiggins School of Law
Campbell University

"This experience has further solidified my main goal as a lawyer which is to help the under-privileged and minority communities gain equal access to the legal system. I am filled with gratitude and appreciation for the energy and efforts that LANC spends on continuing to help these communities."

Larry Futrell

North Carolina Central University School of Law

"Due to the rich experience that I gained this summer, I can confidently approach my last year of law school knowing that helping my community as an attorney is something that I was born to do. LANC helped me overcome my fears of the future through daily opportunities to prove to myself that I am more than able to become a leader in this profession."
